

Supplementary Handout for Dis 1: General Info

1 General Info

1. Contact Me

You can reach me by sending me an email or attending my office hours.

- Email me at travis.cao@wisc.edu (please start the subject line with “Econ 310”).
- Office hours take place at the following times and locations:
 - Mondays, 9:00 - 10:00am, online via Zoom (link on Canvas; see below on how to find it)
 - Fridays, 11:45am - 12:45pm, in-person at 6439 Social Sciences
 - Or by appointment

2. Discussion Sections

- Attendance
 - Attendance is not required, but strongly encouraged.
 - Sections take place at the following times and locations:
 - * Thursdays, 2:25 - 3:15pm @ 490 Van Hise
 - * Fridays, 1:20 - 2:10pm @ L159 Education
 - * Fridays, 2:25 - 3:15pm @ 6240 Social Sciences

Due to the physical capacity limit of these classrooms, please attend the section that you registered for.

If you need to switch to a different section time, and you cannot make it happen officially through the Course Search & Enrollment app, send me an email and we’ll work something out.

- Screen recording of the discussion section will be posted (I use my iPad to teach all sections, and the screen of my iPad will be recorded and posted on Canvas after my last section of the week; all sections cover the same material).
 - * Screen recording is, at best, an imperfect substitute for attending sections live. I strongly encourage you to attend discussion section in person every week.
 - * Screen recording is intended as a resource to allow you to rewatch part of the section in case you didn’t follow along at the time, or because you cannot make it to certain week’s section due to any personal / health reason.
 - * You all are adults. Make smart choices.

- Discussion materials
 - Handouts and solutions (and other discussion materials from me, including online office hour’s Zoom link) are available on Canvas.
 - You can find them on “TA Resources for Travis’s Students”, which is under the module “Discussion Sections and TA Office Hours” (located at the bottom of your Canvas 310 course home page).
